

Chicago-Kent College of Law

Scholarly Commons @ IIT Chicago-Kent College of Law

The Record

Publications

9-30-1985

The Record - September 30, 1985

IIT Chicago-Kent College of Law

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarship.kentlaw.iit.edu/the_record

Part of the Law Commons

Recommended Citation

IIT Chicago-Kent College of Law, "The Record - September 30, 1985" (1985). The Record. 5.
https://scholarship.kentlaw.iit.edu/the_record/5

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Publications at Scholarly Commons @ IIT Chicago-Kent College of Law. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Record by an authorized administrator of Scholarly Commons @ IIT Chicago-Kent College of Law. For more information, please contact jwenger@kentlaw.iit.edu, ebarney@kentlaw.iit.edu.

CHICAGO-KENT
COLLEGE
OF
LAW

77 SOUTH WACKER DRIVE
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS 60606
PHONE 312/567-5000

The Law School Record

September 30, 1985

MORRIS LECTURE IN INTERNATIONAL AND COMPARATIVE LAW

As you read this, the editor is sunning herself in Santa Fe; but the Morris Lecture will nonetheless take place as scheduled, at noon today in Room 101. Former President Belaunde of Peru will comment on "Social, Economic and Political Changes in Latin America."

THE INNS OF CAMPUS

There was a time, as you no doubt recall from old movies and Hogarth engravings, when aspiring British lawyers learned their profession by working, eating and residing with senior members of the bar. Ross Nankivell of the legal writing faculty has now imported this tradition to the law floor of the graduate dormitory, whose quarters he shares with a dozen or so members of the first year class. It must be that Commonwealth training!

COMMODITIES LAW INSTITUTE

Our Eighth Annual Commodities Law Institute takes over the Westin Hotel this Thursday and Friday, with 80 speakers on the topic including the chair of the Commodities Futures Trading Commission, the presidents of the Chicago Board of Trade and the Chicago Mercantile Exchange, and just about everybody else who's anybody in the commodities field. If you want to go, you may do so free; just stop by Dean Ray Berry's office, Room 302, and complete a registration form. Be sure to mark the form "Student," or you'll get a bill.

ON YOUR TOES, AGAIN

The peripatetic Record has finally come to rest in Room 210. Keep those cards and letters coming in!

NOTICES OF RECORD: WHEREIN WE LIST NOTICES OF DIVERS KINDS

UNCLASSIFIABLE BUT VITAL

Dean Rudstein is pleased to announce that Bart A. Lazar has been awarded first prize in the Nathan Burkan Memorial Competition at Chicago-Kent College of Law. Mr. Lazar's paper entitled "Public Display of Blacked-Out Football Telecasts Through the Interception of Television Satellite Transmissions," will be entered in the national competition. The competition is sponsored by the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers.

To Stuart Deutsch's First Year Advisees

I would like to meet with you on Tuesday, October 1, 1985, at 4 p.m. in room 630.

Mary Bers
Thomas Cappelletti
Dolores Erickson
Judi Gilson
Keith Harley
Kathryn Jones

Julie Levin
Bruce Ogron
Ann Parisi
Stephen Scharf
Carolyn Scully
Marc Taxman
David Winer

Jeffrey Sherman's Exam Review Sessions

Students who wish to review their performance on last May's final examinations in Gift and Estate Tax or Pension and Profit-Sharing Plans should consult the sign-up sheet on the bulletin board next to room 311.

January 1986 Graduates

Bar applications for the February 1986 bar exam are now available in the Registrar's office, room 306. The Certificate of the Dean is automatically completed and sent to the Illinois State Board of Bar Examiners for all law school graduates. A representative from the Committee on Character and Fitness will be here to answer questions on the completion of the bar application, at a date and time to be announced.

Professional Responsibility Exam

Applications are now available in the Registrar's office, room 306, for the November Multistate Professional Responsibility Exam (MPRE). The deadline for application is October 18. Please be advised that if you intend to practice in Florida, scores attained prior to graduation are not accepted in that state.

HELP WANTED AT HOME

Gary Laser needs two students to assist him in his research on Federal Civil Procedure issues and on an article concerning clinical legal education. Students will be paid according to the usual and customary law school rate or may enroll for independent research credit.

CAREER PLANNING AND PLACEMENT NEWS

Scheduled Fall Recruiter

We are still accepting resumes for Touche Ross & Company, an accounting firm scheduled to interview on campus on October 10, 1985. If you are a third year student with an accounting background and have not already submitted a resume for this recruiter, you may do so today. We will accept these additional resumes until 5 p.m.

Fall Interview Program - Students Selected for Interviews

Sante Fe Southern Pacific Corporation-Law Department in Chicago is accepting resumes from second year students only for summer intern positions. The law department consists of 30 attorneys who handle general corporate matters, including those related to commerce/transportation, antitrust, securities/finance, real estate, labor, ERISA/employee benefits and energy/environment. Applicants must be in the upper third of the class. Second year students who wish to apply should submit a resume to the Career Planning & Placement Office by October 4.

Minority Law Student Job Fair

On October 12 and 19, 1985, the Minority Law Student Job Fair will be held at Northwestern University. Information and applications are available in the Career Planning and Placement Office, room 322. See handout item #17.

Environmental Career Planning Conference

"Becoming an Environmental Professional," a career conference, will take place at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor on Saturday, November 2. Registration forms and information are available in Career Planning & Placement. See handout item #14.

U.S. Attorney's Office, Northern District of Illinois-Spring 1986 Intern Program

This program is for students who will be in their third year of law school next spring. Students will be provided with the greatest possible exposure to and participation in federal trial and appellate practice. Interns are expected to work at least 16 hours a week. The work can be done for work-study funds, for credit or as a volunteer. Applications are available in the Career Planning and Placement Office, room 322, and must be submitted to the U.S. Attorney's Office by October 15, 1985. Students who seek course credit must speak to Vivien Gross. See handout item #8.

Careers in Futures Industry

On Thursday, October 3, 1985 from 2-6 p.m., a program on career opportunities in the futures industry will be presented at the Chicago Mercantile Exchange. Admission is free for students. More information is available in the Career Planning and Placement Office. See handout item #5.

Internships & Fellowships

We have received information on several internships and fellowships. This information is available in the Career Planning and Placement Office as handout items 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 15 and 16.

SCHOLARSHIPS/WRITING COMPETITIONS

The American Intellectual Property Law Association is announcing the Robert C. Watson Award for 1986. Full time day and evening division students are eligible to compete for the $500 award to be given to the author of the best article on a subject relating to the protection of intellectual property written or published between September 1, 1985, and July 31, 1986. For more information see Pauline White in room 305.

A new legal periodical will soon begin publication at Albany Law School, and second and third year students are invited to join the editorial board and staff. The Local Government Law Journal will be distributed to attorneys practicing in the field of local government and will be edited by law students. What sets this legal periodical apart from others, however, is the fact that students from every ABA-approved law school are being invited to become involved in the Journal, both as editors and correspondents. For information regarding the Journal please see the announcement posted on the board in the student lounge.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

Chicago Bar Association invites all students to join. The CBA offers law students the unique opportunity to become familiar with the day-to-day operations of the legal profession before they are actually admitted to practice. Applications are available on the second floor and around the building. Any students who would like more information should contact Jim Smith in the SBA office.

Women In Law

Meetings this week: Tuesday, October 1, noon to 1 p.m., in room 324, Wednesday, October 2, 5-6 p.m. (check bulletin board for room). We will discuss upcoming speakers, informal discussions, and the National Conference on Women and the Law.

Chancellor Kent International Law Society will meet on Thursday, October 3, 1985 at 4 p.m. Please note the new meeting time. Committees will be set up to begin work on the Jessup International Moot Court Competition.

Kent Justice Foundation

Hey Folks - Don't miss "The Return of Ralph Nader" or "Ralph Nader II"! KJF's presentation of Ralph Nader last year was so successful, we decided to bring him back--in spirit anyway. We are showing the videotape of last year's Nader speech on Tuesday, October 1, 1985, at 1 p.m. The room will be announced later.

P.A.D. will hold its General Meeting on Tuesday, October 1, at noon in room 203. All members, associates, and interested students are urged to attend. Topics to be discussed are Initiation, Judges Reception, Beer Bash, and the Outline Workshop. A report will also be given on past events.

G.A.L.S.A. thanks all students and faculty who attended our party last Friday. We hope you all had a good time!